

Brad & Ashley

Dear Birth Mom,

Thank you for taking the time to learn more about our family. My name is Ashley, and my husband's name is Brad. We have been married 21 years, and have been blessed with a big, beautiful family. We have six children, ranging in age from 16 years down to 2 years. My husband and I had 4 daughters, and when our youngest was 7 years old we began our adoption journey. Adoption blessed us with a little boy in March of 2018, and a little girl in November of 2018. They are the joys of our family and we can't imagine our lives without them.

We are a mixed race family; my husband and I and our four older daughters are white, and our two youngest are African American. My favorite adoption quote (I have it hanging on our wall at home) says, "God created our skin tones with beautiful variety, but all of our souls are the same color." Adoption has shown us that it doesn't matter how you come into a family, the love is the same. My daughters adore their younger siblings and are fiercely protective of them.

About Brad

1.) He is self-employed 2.) He's a servant of our Faith 3.) He's the Best Daddy EVER (written by Ashley here, but seriously true) 4.) His kids are his hobby-- his Saturdays and free time are spent with his family. 5.) He likes books ALOT (he has bookshelves full of them!) 6.) He's fluent in Spanish 7.) He has more pictures on his page than me because I take all the pictures!

We are a Christian family and our faith is important in our lives. Our children are musicians, and they all take karate (just in case you wanted to know some of the things we are involved in).

We live in a two-story house in a small town in Louisiana, just down the road from grandparents.

If you decide that we are the family you want to raise your precious child, we can assure you that he or she will be so loved.
