

Kelly & Chris

Hello

We are Chris and Kelly and are so grateful that you are taking the time to read our profile. I hope this book can provide a picture and help you imagine your child as a part of our family. Whether we ever get the chance to meet, we want you to know what a selfless and courageous decision you have made for your child. We would love to be the parents to your child and share our passions for family, sports, and traveling with them.

Our Love Story

After we both graduated from college, we met through a group of mutual friends at a local restaurant. We immediately hit it off and spent every weekend hanging out, taking day trips rafting, hiking, or going see football games. After just 5 months together, Chris proposed at the lighting of the Christmas Tree at a beautiful Chateau, and had a surprise engagement party set up at his house afterwards. Then by that April, we were married at the Church where my parents and grandparents had been married. It was love at first sight for us and it didn't take long to figure it out.

Why we would like to adopt

We tried for several years to start a family. After one medical treatment, Kelly was able to give birth to our son Max in December 2013. We then began to pursue another child and struggled for 4 years to build our family. After numerous miscarriages, we discovered medical treatments were no longer working, but we still wanted to complete our family.

We have decided to pursue adoption as we believe that a child does not need to be our biological child for us to be their parents. We have so much love to give, and can not wait to complete our family.

Kelly is a very positive and sweet person. She cares deeply for any person she comes in contact with. She has worked to find a job that not only helps provide for our family, but also allows her to be home when she is needed. Kelly enjoys being around children through playing sports or teaching at Church. What I love about Kelly is that she is a strong woman, but has a loving heart. She loves to be outside, try new restaurants, read books, and go to the gym.

Chris is my biggest fan and encourages me to accomplish any goal I want to achieve. He is really smart and driven in every aspect of his life. As an athlete he plays softball and is currently training to run his 3rd Boston Marathon. He has grown in his career through his education and hard work. What I love about Chris is his sense of humor and how deeply he cares for his family. He enjoys playing with our son, watching football, reading books, and playing games.

Kelly's Family

My family is very close and we enjoy spending time together. I have an older sister, who is married and has two children. My sister and my parents live within 30 minutes from each other. My sister hosts Thanksgiving for everyone including extended family. Then at Christmas the whole family comes to our house for breakfast and presents. Both of my parents are retired, so being able to work from home - I am able to meet up with them during the week at local parks.

We spend time together several times a month at my Papa's house where we play sports outside, watch football, eat dinner together, and play cards. My extended family gets together for holidays and birthdays as well.

Our Parenting Style

We want to raise our children to care for all people and to learn to make good choices as they grow up. We also want them to always feel and know how much we love them and support them in the paths that they choose.

We both find it important to mirror everything we want for our children, (with each other as parents) so our children can see an example of our values and feel confident in how to grow up as a strong, loving individual.
